MUSIC LESSONS

for as little as 7¢ a day

FOUND ACCORDION EASY

"I've always wanted to play the piano accordion," writes *H. E. from Canada. "But thought I'd never learn it. Then I read about your lessons. I don't know how to express my satisfaction."

BEST METHOD BY FAR

"Enclosed is my last examination sheet for my course in Tenor Banjo. This completes my course. I have taken lessons before under teachers, but my instructions with you were by far the best."

*A. O., Minn.

*Actual pupils' names on request. Pictures by professional models.

LEARNED QUICKLY AT HOME

"I didn't dream I could actually learn to play without a teacher. . . . I had always heard it couldn't be done. You can imagine my surprise when after 3 or 4 weeks I found I could play real tunes. Now when I play people will hardly believe that I learned to play so well in so short a time. Any person who takes your piano course and studies it cannot help but learn to play."

*H. C. S., California

You, too, can learn to play your favorite instrument —quickly, easily—right in your own home!

YOU SAY you'd love to learn music but can't afford it? That you haven't the money it takes for a private teacher, and all the necessary extras? Then listen to this . . . You can now learn to play your favorite instrument—just as thousands of others have—for AS LITTLE AS SEVEN CENTS A DAY! And that small sum covers everything—including sheet music! It doesn't take long, either. You can learn to play quicker than you ever dreamed possible!

Learn to play by playing Real Tunes

Yes, that's exactly what you do. From the very beginning you actually play familiar little melodies. As you master one tune, you go on to another, and another. You're more than delighted with the rapid progress you make.

How is it possible, you ask. Well, you learn by a new modern method that does away with hum-drum scales and exercises. You spend your practice time playing interesting pieces from real notes. It's really FUN learning to play this modern way—it makes practicing a pastime and a pleasure instead of a bore.

What's more, this method is not a trick one—not an experiment. You learn to play from notes. More than 700,000 pupils from all over the world have enrolled for this amazing course.

A Sound, Practical Method

The secret of this method that has taught thousands to play in their spare time, right at home, is simple. It's based on the fact that the lessons not only tell you what to do in the printed instructions. They actually show you—with large, clear pictures—exactly what positions to take—every move to make. You read how to play a certain tune—you see how to play it—then you play it and hear how it goes. A teacher at your side couldn't make it more clear. You just can't go wrong!

Print and Picture Sample—FREE

If you're really interested in learning music quickly and easily—and with little expense, send for our Free Booklet and Free Print and Picture Sample today. Don't wait. Fill in the coupon now—checking your favorite instrument. Instruments supplied when needed, cash or credit. U. S. School of Music, 511 Brunswick Bldg., New York City. Forty-third year. (Est. 1898.)

SIMPLE AS A-B-C Yet it's from "Kiss the Boys Goodbye"

Just strike the notes indicated above, and you'll be actually playing the melody of the popular hit tune of Paramount's picture, "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," starring Mary Martin and Don Ameche.

The French call it chou-chou but we call it cabbage—and here's the queen of them, vegetating Mitzi Uehlein.

"Marriage is just a hit and miss proposition. If you don't make a hit, you remain a miss."

"A smart cookie can get a lot of things out of her husband if she knows how to play bawl."

And here's another grocery queen. This time it's carrots and Peggy O'Neal, worrying about something.

Majory Dean, on the "All American Co-ed" set gets a touch of make-up from the lady and a cheer from us.

You've got to take some things lying down, and one of them's a rest. So graceful Harriet Haddon stretches out for a snooze on the set of the new Hal Roach picture, "All American Co-ed," where these stills were snapped by our staff photographer Bob Beerman.

"Do you always bring your pay envelope

"Yes; it's only when
I don't open it that I go home straight."

MOVIE MEMORIES

"THE BLONDES GENTLEMEN USED TO PREFER"

Here's that all American girl Gloria Stuart at the time she was being chased around in "The Old Dark House" by Boris Karloff

One of the leading hotsy totsy mammas of the early thirties was exciting June Knight, now in a graceful retirement.

"Aren't you afraid of going home drunk as an owl?"

"No, my wife doesn't give a hoot."

The birth of sound brought beautiful Marlene Dietrich to Hollywood because of her "delightful voice," as well as for her pins.

Twelve years ago Virginia Bruce was still a chorine; one of the fairest flowers to be plucked in "The Lillies of the Field"

◀ This is Anna Sten, the glamor girl nobody knows today. She took a nose dive into bit parts after a million-dollar publicity build-up laid proficient egg.

She was flitting across the ice...

... as he sailed rapidly backwards—

HOW THE ICE WAS BROKEN

—and so they met with quite an impact.

"Well, haven't we met before?"

"Oh, I remember you, your name is—uh—Herbie."

—And that's how the ice was broken.

Dorothy Lewis and Robin Lee, two of America's most noted skating figures, act out a short skit for Film Fun lensman Bob Beerman. Dottie is currently featured in Republic's "Ice-Capades" which is about—you guessed it—skating. Before her picture career, she passed three seasons in New York's famed Iridium Room.

Witchful

Lucia Carroll and Ann Edmond pull a Halloween stunt on the neighbors.

Swiping a gate furnishes these starlets with another good gag.

Ingenue Gloria Dickson smashes the old tradition about witches.

"The nicest fur coats don't come from foxes, pal, they come from wolves!"

These two pumkins would make any old spook happy.

Here are two pretty belles about to push an ugly bell.

"Yes indeed. I know a doctor that would be perfect if he had one."

"So you believe practice makes perfect?"

SNAP TRAP

NEW SPEEDRAY CAMERA MAKES ACTION DO TRICKS

On these pages is a set of tricky photos you'd never get with that Brownie of yours. Some genius, name unknown to us, has developed a fancy split-second action camera called the "Speedray," able to snap movement in any form; clear, crystalline, and unblurred—from the graceful topsy-turvy shots of dancers and skaters to little Willie throwing a pie at mean old Aunt Susie.

Van Johnson, Shirley Page, and Gene Kelly in a scene from the revue, "Pal Joey."

Stripper Pat Joyce lifts up her gams for the Speedray.

"To what do you attribute your great age?"

"To the fact that I was born so long ago."

"Hold everything!"

"What do you think I am, an octopus?"

A "Pal Joey" specialty act is caught high in the air.

Adele Inge, head over heels in the show, "Ice Terrace."

STARS and TYPES

Here's a Warner's peach ducking for apples at a Hallowe'en party.

An ardent Polynesian gives Lamour a little l'amour and the double-O.

"When a co-ed starts hocking her collection of pins, she's just living off the fat of the land."

Take a gander at a lucky man and a neat set of gams with him in "Gambling Daughters."

Red hot and spicy is Betty Bryson, the Pepper Queen and new movie starlet, as she reads about herself in the dailies.

"Hey, Percy, do you know the difference between a good girl and a naughty one?"

"I give up."

"So does the naughty one."

Some girls long to neck — but most of 'em neck too long.

"My mother says a love knot can be tied with only a single beau."

Republic's skating ingenue Vera Hrubá passes a slippery one to that old master, ace footballer Sammy Baugh.

Good morning, children. The educational part of the Film Fun program is here again. So sharpen your pencils and your wits, hold the magazine in both hands and toss it firmly into the waste basket. ## No help for Hubby

THE DOLEFUL STORY OF HERBIE, WHO FOUND THAT HOME IS A VERY DANGEROUS PLACE

Well there I am, sittin' in the kitchen, doin' my housework like I always do, washin' the dishes and the pots and pans after I have whipped up a little eggs benedictine to go with the snails and frappe moule that the missus and I always have for breakfast before she goes off to her job on one of them there movie magazines. The little lady is on her way and I give a wipe on her pan and another wipe on the dish pan at the same time, showin' I'm a man of efficiency. So the better half is out fightin' the subway rush in her effort to bring home the bacon and the doorbell rings. I go answer it and it turns out to be, of all things, a travelin' salesman—

No help for hubby

Surprised ya, eh? Well, this travelin' salesman is musclin' in on what used to be strictly a man's racket, the development of the Herculean body beautiful.

Herbie, I tells myself, lend an ear to this amazon's spiel and maybe she'll lend you a lot of big time information.

It's certainly beginnin' to look that way, and she shows me a fancy new bendin' exercise, which suits me fine.

First this female Charles Atlas demonstrates her muscle (not the only one she's got, I naturally assume) and I start tellin' myself there's a muscle I'm goin' to develop so I can be a fancy athlete.

Then she does the bicycle pump exercise for me and I decide that maybe I oughta take up ridin' a bike, or at least try doin' some sort of an ersatz exercise along with this free wheeler.

Oh, oh, it's Madame Dynamite returnin' to report there's a strike on and the office is closed so she's come home to find some dirty work cookin' behind her back. Nellie gives the lady Hercules the old one-two.

And that's all there is to it. I'm behind in my housework; I got the little woman sore at me, I'll never see the muscle dame again, and my eye needs a steak. What a mess!

SHET MA MOUTH!

Franklin Mouth galloped down the platform of Grand Central's lower level. The five-fifteen for Chicago picked up speed, but so did Frank. Just as he was about to leap, he realized that somebody was running behind him.

"Oh, wait—wait, please—" the somebody else squealed.

Frank peeped around as he ran and saw a very pretty girl with her skirt pulled up so she could run. He slacked his pace and grabbed her around the waist and swooped her to the train's steps. Then he swung aboard, too.

"Thank you," she gasped.

"Don't mention it," puffed Frank, aware that the things his heart were doing weren't entirely due to his sprint. "Always glad to pick up a beautiful young lady."

"So your wife says," she panted, thrusting a folded paper at his pocket.

Automatically he reached for the paper as the girl dodged into the train. Then his eyes saw the big black letters printed on the first page: SUMMONS.

"I suppose you heard about the tough luck that happened to Herman the Human Fly."

"Did he fail in his screen test?"

"Worse than that. His wife swatted him."

She—Do you know, darling, I'm kissing against my doctor's orders.

He—Heavens, are you sick?

She—No, but you'll be—the doctor's my hubby.

Sometime we'll tell you about the Hollywood star who had to stop work on her biography because of "I" strain.

"With all that lipstick on his face, Jerry looks like a great lover."

"Yes, he's a marked success."

"Have you ever found excessive drinking dangerous?"

"Yes, once when I couldn't pay the check."

No matter if a fellow can make a kiss last an hour or more, there's always some guy who can beat his time.

He—Your kisses put me in heaven.

She—Well, yours don't. Come down to earth!

"Heavens! Joe looks as though he slept in the gutter."

"You're right. He's the laziest street cleaner in town."

He—Ten thousand women saw my etchings yesterday, Toots.

She—My gosh, do you live in a museum?

He—Nope. I'm the Tattooed Man in the circus.

About the only way some men can hold their liquor is after it's in a pretty girl.

Sweetie—Well, let's not go into that.

"Is your father the kind of man who lets little things annoy him?"

"No, not pop, he uses kerosene."

"But, my dear," soothed the dentist, "I'm a dentist, not a doctor."

"I know it," quipped the blonde. "Just look at my ear. There's a tooth in it."

"You had better put on your glasses, sir, the plaster cast is over there!"

Hemisphere solidarity and a little more is shown by latin Conchita Montenegro.

"We will, when we can afford them."

It's no brush-off for French 'he-man Jean Gabin as Viviane Romance vamps.

A new twist to an old angle is given by Isa Miranda of Italy.

"Every masher's aim, bub, is to crush some sweet dream gal."

"And the best material for a dress is hubby's story when he sneaks in at 4 A.M."

"It's funny, but the last place a cute dish likes to be is in the kitchen."

"Do you mean to tell me you felt like welcoming your mother-in-law with open arms?"

"Yes, when I heard she was going to visit us I had an impulse to slash my wrists."

BE A HOLLYWOOD TALENT SCOUT

Drop everything! Learn to unearth new movie stars this new proven way. It's easy—exciting—educational!

Who will be the next Hedy Lamarr? Or the next Judy Garland? Or the next Betty Boop?

Nobody knows. Yet you—YOU—may be the lucky person who “discovers” the next big star. For all you know, you may have a Joan Crawford within your grasp right now. And for all we know, you may be making time with the next Minnie Mouse!

In other words, all you need do to become a talent scout is to grit your teeth and look around your own home. Your cook may be another Zazu Pitts. Your hired man may be funnier than Abbott and Costello (our hired man is much funnier). And your aunt Eunice, with a little make-up and a Colossal Reducing Harness, can surely play one of the horses in the next version of Ben Hur.

But if you don't find what you want under your own roof, don't hesitate to look elsewhere. Look into your neighbor's rain-barrel. Peek into your estranged wife's cookie jar; (if you don't find a potential star there, take a cookie, anyway). And don't overlook your mistress's moth-proof hamper; for remember—moths and movie stars often have much in common.

Leave No Stone Unturned!

You know the old saying: “A worm in the hand,” etc. Hence you should be on the watch for talent everywhere you go. From morning til night, you should keep your eyes peeled. The ferry boats are full of Fred Astaires—no doubt. Every business office has at least a dozen Lana Turners, a score of Rita Hayworths and enough Myrna Loys and William Powells to build another Thin Man. Moreover, by dropping a nickel in the right slot in the Automat, you can get a complete set of the Marx Brothers—on whole wheat toast.

So you see being a talent scout is quite simple. All you have to do is separate the sheep from the goats, the cream from the milk, and the Marx Brothers from the whole wheat toast. Others have tried to do this—why not you?

Talent Is the Name for Stuff!

There is no age limit to talent. Your great-grandmother is just as good a prospect for stardom as your great-granddaughter. Your goldfish, your pet turtle, or even the unhatched eggs which your hen has been setting on, the past two weeks may all turn out to be famous film stars. In the case of the eggs, however, you—or the hen—had better finish the hatching process before the eggs are shipped to Hollywood, where an egg is at the mercy of hundreds of hungry actors.

So if you happen to discover a star in your own home or hencoop, guard the secret with your life! Tell no one—especially us. Just remember that talent will out, and that you can't keep a good egg down.

A Star Is Born—Every Minute!

One very good place to find movie talent is in the movies themselves. This is where most professional scouts look for talent. Of course, the professional scouts don't actually go to the movies; they stay at home and read the reviews. Then, when a critic suddenly hails some stand-in as a coming star, the professional scouts all rush around to the various producers and say, “Look, Sam! I gotta real find for you! Olga Foltch! She's another Simone Simon!” And the producers say, “Olga Foltch? So who is Olga Foltch ar-reddy?” And the scouts say, “Olga Foltch! She'll be a box-office wow! Another Shirley Temple!” And the producers say, “But Olga Foltch—what was she in yet?” And the scouts, who aren't any too sure, say “Well—she was a stand-in for Elsa Snartt in ‘Caught in the Draught’. But mark my woids, Sam, she'll be a box-office wow some day, another Bette Davis!” So the producers say, “Haw-Kay. Sign her up and change her name to Veronica Ipswich!”

Thus, a star is born.

Write Today for a Free Sample!

Send today for a free sample of Talent. With this sample, you can practice becoming a talent scout, and learn to recognize talent when it sneaks up behind and bites you. Just drop us a post card and we will ship you, pre-paid, another Ann Corio; and if she doesn't bite you the first week, you'll know she isn't likely to become another Garbo. But don't delay! Act now—or forever be mighty thankful that you didn't!

“On him it looked so nice!”

Queen Mary

Meet Phyllis Wayne

A DATE WITH FILM FUN

Off 5th Avenue on swanky 58th Street is The Queen Mary, meetin' and eatin' spot of New York's upper crust. Come on down and take in the midnight show with us.

JERRY BLANCHARD

Glad to see ya, glad to see ya! We're just in time for the late show. Just leave your hat with the little lady on your right, and step down to FILM FUN'S ringside table (drinks all around, waiter.) Recognize the mistress of ceremonies? She's Jerry Blanchard, "Queen of the Nite-clubs," and a top-flight favorite all through the Broadway circuit. . . . Nifty chorus, eh? Frank Shephard does a fine job on the dance routines. We like that blonde up front. Don't you? She's Phyliss Wayne . . . Phyliss says The Queen Mary is one of the happiest clubs she's worked in; nice atmosphere, good bosses, classy customers . . . But Phyliss could get along anywhere. Terry Carroll is the girl behind the flashy tap specialty and Chiquita Venezia is that tawny strip-tease lovely . . . She used to be in Texas Guinan's troupe. Soft lights now for Kimi Toy. You ask what she's doing in a place called The Queen Mary? Well, it used to be Swedish, but now it's got Chinese-American cooking. And Kimi sure knows what's cookin' . . . Between shows, Babe Salter fills in with fine boogie-blues on the piano . . . Look around yourself: don't waste time reading all this stuff.

Terry Carroll's dressing room is no ritzy suite, but everything's in order . . . Even the smile, eh?

A quick flip of the zipper, and Terry climbs into her self-designed costume for the finale.

MIDNIGHT SHOW AT THE QUEEN MARY

LEILA GAYNES does a happy-go-lucky routine that really makes the customers happy. She sings, dances, and dishes a whacky double-talk to top off the act.

Kimi Toy has hips that do dippy things when the music gets hot.

Here's Chiquita Venezia at the start of her famous fan dance.

Phyliss Wayne has a something that makes the folks look twice.

With a razz-ma-tazz and a hold-that-tiger we go to UCLA to discover what constitutes a higher education there.

She sees something in the sky. Must be one of those Nazi bombers so she aims at it with her bow and arrow.

WITH BOW AND ERROR

POSED ESPECIALLY FOR FILM FUN
BY CAROL HUGHES, SINGING
LEAD IN "I'LL WAIT FOR YOU."

Tough job pulling that bow. Maybe this way is better. Takes a lot of skill to shoot down an airplane.

She hit it! And it's falling! That Nazi bomber is going to crash right on her head if she doesn't watch out.

There's been a lot of talk about how the Germans are going to bomb Horsefeather Junction, so Susie elects herself the local anti-aircraft defense.

Oh, hell! Some language from a lady. Nothing but a duck and a dead one at that. Sister, you might as well quit.

"Is this your package? The name is obliterated."

"That can't be right, my name is O'Rourke."

"How did you get that bad eye?"

"It's a birth mark."

"What do you mean, a birth mark?"

"I got in the wrong one on the Century last night."

"Are you a letter man?"

"Yessir. She always wants to, and I always letter."

Girl—Will you please donate something to the Old Ladies' Home?

Man—Sure. Help yourself to my mother-in-law.

He—How about some old-fashioned lovemaking?

She—All right, I'll call Grandma down for you!

"They had to give Aunt Tillie ether twice for one operation."

"How's that?"

"One to perform the operation and again to keep her from talking about it."

"It's most essential that you refrain from doing headwork during the next few weeks."

"Yes, but, Doc, that's my living."

"Oh, are you scholar?"

"No, I'm a barber."

A lawyer whose office was on the twelfth floor was expecting a client of his from the country. The door opened and the client entered, puffing violently.

"Some walk up those twelve flights," he panted.

"But why didn't you take the elevator?" asked the attorney.

"I meant to," replied the hick, "but I missed the darned thing!"

"Do you know anything about this case?" the juror was asked.

"No."

"Have you heard anything about it?"

"No."

"Have you read anything about it?"

"No. I can't read!"

"Have you formed an opinion about this case?"

"What case?"

"Accepted, Your Honor!"

STARRED and FEATHERED

Classical standby of the ballet for many years has been "The Dance of the Swan," but now another bird clambers into the spotlight to knock off a long-hair boogie. Meet curvacious Zoe Del Lantis, former theme girl of the San Francisco Fair, who presents the dramatic "Dance of the Ostrich."

MIRTH MARCHES ON

Joe—Have you got a picture of yourself?

Roommate—Yeah.

Joe—Then let me use that mirror. I want to shave.

Kid Sister—Sis, do you mind if I follow in your footsteps?

Big Sister—Not at all, but don't be at my heels.

"Why, toots, I have to be a cut-up in my business."

"So you're a comedian?"

"Naw! I'm a film censor."

"You don't smoke cigarettes, do you, little boy?"

"No ma'am, but I can let you have a chaw of terbaccer."

"Why did they evict the medical student from the library?"

"They caught him removing the appendix from the book he was reading."

"Been drowning your sorrows, I suppose?"

"No, but I've been giving them a darn good swimming lesson."

"Beautiful, I'm dynamite!"

"Yeah? Then don't get near me."

"And why not?"

"You'd be playing with fire."

"Are you the bull of the campus?"

"That's me, baby."

"Oh, so you drink too much?"

"No, I sell lemonade."

Ohio's LOVE NEST LADY and the AVENGING LOTHARIO

When Akron police found the body of lovely Harriet Deger stiff in death, her lifeblood freezing on the sidewalk, they knew they were on the trail of a killer driven mad by hate.

Hate—over what? Detectives probed into the victim's private life to find out . . . And what they discovered staggered them.

For this girl, though married, had scorned her wedding vows and lived by a code of morals all her own. Headless of convention, eager for pleasure in a giddy and endless whirl, she had spent days and nights in a "love nest" household set up for her by her secret lover. Never had she stopped to realize that she was travelling the mad road that leads inexorably to tragedy.

She had sinned without qualms—and for her the wages of sin was death!

Who had taken vengeance? Which of the men in her life, crazed by her faithlessness, had sped the fatal bullets?

For the solution to this real-life detective mystery, and the fast police work that sent the killer to the chair, look for "Ohio's Love Nest Lady" in the thrilling November issue of INSIDE DETECTIVE! It's only one of the fascinating true cases in America's most interesting fact-detective magazine!

Established 25 years
He has directed the training of more men for the Radio Industry than anyone else.

Be a RADIO Technician

Many make $30 $40 $50 a week

I Train Beginners at Home for Good Spare Time and Full Time Radio Jobs

Set Servicing pays many N. R. I. trained Radio Technicians $30, $40, $50 a week. Others hold their regular jobs and make $5 to $10 extra a week in spare time.

Broadcasting Stations employ N.R.I. trained Radio Technicians as operators, installation, maintenance men and in other capacities and pay well.

Loudspeaker System building, installing, servicing and operating is another growing field for N. R. I. trained Radio Technicians.

Radio Operators find good jobs with Government Departments, Shipping Companies and in Commercial Aviation; opportunities are increasing in these fields.

I Trained These Men

$10 a Week Extra in Spare Time

"I repaired some Radio sets when I was on my tenth lesson. I really don't see how you can give so much for such a small amount of money. I made $600 in a year and a half, and I have made an average of $10 a week—just spare time." JOHN JERRY, 1729 Penn St., Denver, Colorado.

Makes $50 a Week

"I am making around $50 a week after all expenses are paid, and I am getting all the Radio work I can take care of, thanks to N. R. I." H. W. SPANGLER, 126½ S. Gay St., Knoxville, Tenn.

Operates Public Address System

"I have a position with the Los Angeles Civil Service operating the Public Address System in the City Hall Council. My salary is $170 a month." R. H. ROOD, R. 136 City Hall, Los Angeles, Calif.

Here is a quick way to more pay. Radio offers a way to make $5, $10 a week extra in spare time a few months from now, plus the opportunities for a permanent job in the growing Radio industry. There is an increasing demand for full time Radio Technicians and Radio operators. Many make $30, $40, $50 a week. On top of a large demand for Radio sets and equipment for civilian use, the Radio industry is getting millions and millions of dollars in defense orders. Clip the coupon below and mail it. Find out how I train you for these opportunities.
